CLAIMANTS RESPONSE TO NOTICE OF HEARING ON DEBTORS' FORTY-FIRST OMNIBUS OBJECTION TO CLAIMS (LATE-FILED CLAIMS)

CLAIMS TO BE DISALLOWED & EXPUNGED
Creditor Name and Address: JOHN, TAN LYE THIAM B288A Bt Batok St 25 #15-228 Singapore 650288 Republic of Singapore	Claim number: 34794 Date Filed: 9/24/2009 Debtor: 08-13555 Classification and Amount: Unsecured: $25,535.00 Unliquidated

I refer to your notice dated September 13, 2010, regarding your objection to my claim as detailed above.

I request that you reconsider and reinstate my claim which was filed late due to the following reasons that were beyond my control.

First, as a private and small-time investor of the Lehman minibond, I experienced some difficulties in filing my claim in view of the paucity of information available to investors regarding their legal rights, options and means/manner to pursue their claims following Lehman's collapse and bankruptcy. Even the local bank, which sold me the minibond investment products, was of little help maintaining instead that their role is merely a distributor of Lehman minibond products.

Second, while Epiq served a useful contact and reference point, they seem to be over-whelmed as e-mail correspondences with them took months even for basic enquiries on the claim filing process and documentation requirements.

Last but not least, the late delivery and receipt of my claim was due in part to the courier (DHL), who has acknowledged that their staff's tardiness had further delayed the delivery of my claim letter to Epiq. DHL has since waived delivery charge in view of the late delivery of the above document.

Kindly re-consider and reinstate my claim as explained above. Meanwhile, if you need further details on my claim beyond those already provided in my proof of claim as submitted earlier, I am contactable via the address and contact numbers as indicated below.

Thank You.
